Governance And Accountability

How authority flows within Get Free Minnesota, from the members through the Board and Officers to management and the three programs.

Voting Members

Elect and remove Directors. Approve the annual budget.
Exercise the voting and approval rights reserved to members.

Board Of Directors

Sets policy. Oversees finances, management, risk and fundraising.
The Board Chair serves within the Board and leads its governance.

Officers

Direct management within assigned portfolios

President And CEO

Directs management, priorities and resources.
Supervises the Interim Executive Director.

Treasurer

Manages budgets, cash, payroll and financial controls.
Works with the Interim Executive Director.

Secretary

Keeps corporate records, minutes, resolutions and notices.

VP, Outreach & Community Partnerships

Leads partnerships and authorized fundraising.

Management runs through the President And CEO

Interim Executive Director

Directs delegated daily operations and staffing.
Reports to the President And CEO.

THREE GFMN PROGRAMS

two-way liaison

Autonomous program

HOPE Act Committee

Directed by its Coordination Circle.
Darla Holland, two-way GFMN liaison.

Reports to Interim ED

Inside/Outside

Program lead or assigned manager.
Supervises staff and contributors.

Reports to Interim ED

End Slavery

Program lead or assigned manager.
Supervises staff and contributors.

Delegated Committees

Carry out delegated work, including assigned fundraising. Board approvals and the Decision Matrix govern their authority.

Autonomy And Connection

The HOPE Act Committee sets its own agenda and program work. Darla Holland connects its Coordination Circle with GFMN in both directions.

Organizational authority and approvals follow the applicable governing documents and the Decision Matrix.